Steve Bowe Releases Debut Album - "Finest Hour"

BoweMusic is delighted to announce the release of Steve Bowe's debut album, "Finest Hour". Inspired in part by Steve's passion for military history, he has chosen the Battle of Britain as a theme for this suite of music.

Steve Bowe has produced a wonderfully evocative musical representation of the events of the Summer of 1940 when Britain defended itself against invasion. Using a fusion of musical styles from contemporary to classical, the momentous events of the Battle of Britain are brought vividly to life in this superbly crafted collection of original music.

Steve Bowe is one of the most exciting new composers to emerge in recent years, taking his inspiration from the great film score composers and virtuoso performers of recent times. "Finest Hour" has been nearly a year in the making, and consists of thirteen tracks of mostly instrumental music covering a number of different styles from classical through to chill out. The tracks tell the story of the battle in broad fashion, but the theme does not impose heavily on what are ultimately thirteen superb pieces of music in their own right.

Tracks are "Gathering Storm", "Channel Raid", "Scramble", "Engage", "Up With The Angels", "Count Them In", "Adlertag", "Sunset Over London", "Blitz", "Breakfast In The Ruins", "Big Wing", "Reprieve", "Sceptred Isle".

"Finest Hour" is available to download from iTunes and in CD format from both Amazon.co.uk and the BoweMusic website. The website also contains samples of the tracks to listen to, a montage video and downloadable album sleeve notes.
