Steve Bowe Releases New Album - "Soundscapes"

BoweMusic is pleased to announce the release of Steve Bowe's second album, "Soundscapes".

Steve wanted to create an album full of evocative themes and moods to transport the listener through lands and times whilst keeping to his core philosophy of producing music that engages. This has most definitely been achieved with "Soundscapes". Where else will you find an album of music that takes you from ancient Egypt to the battlefields of the First World War via the back streets of Paris, an 18th century sailing ship, the lochs of Scotland and the highways of California?

Steve Bowe is one of the most exciting new composers to emerge in recent years, taking his inspiration from the great film score composers and virtuoso performers of recent times. "Soundscapes" is a very personal project for Steve, capturing many of his favourite ideas and places with his trademark evocative sounds, accessible structures and melodic themes.

Tracks are "Prayers", "Queen of the Nile", "After the Storm", "Orpheus", "Ile de la Cite", "The Return of Jack Tar", "Iceman", "Caledonia", "Sunset Highway", "Rat Race", "Somme", "A Farewell".

"Soundscapes" is available now to download from iTunes and will be available in CD format from both Amazon.co.uk and the BoweMusic website before the end of October 2011. The website also contains samples of the tracks to listen to, a montage video and downloadable album sleeve notes.
